Chicks will be picked up at the home of Russell Gluth at 418 East 100 North in Valparaiso. You should have a place for them prepared before this date. Purchase food and watering equipment ahead of time. Do not wait until the day the chicks arrive to prepare for them.

When you pick up your birds, bring a box with straw, shavings, crushed newspaper or other rough bedding. Chicks should never be put on a smooth surface. This damages their legs.
