 Official Cattle ID in Indiana – Board of Animal Health (BOAH): Cattle must have an “official ID” to adhere to BOAH regulations. The “official ID” does not include our yellow 5-digit 4-H tag (which is required for 4-H), but it does include an 840/USDA tag. So those who have both their yellow 5-digit tag and an “official” 840/USDA tag are compliant with both 4-H and BOAH.

If your cattle have NOT been tagged with an 840/USDA tag and will be attending an open show prior to the Porter County Fair, you will need to be compliant with these BOAH guidelines on “official ID” for exhibition. More information on acceptable tags and where to obtain them can be found at <https://www.in.gov/boah/2328.htm>.

Upon arrival at the Porter County Fair, any non-terminal cattle that do not yet have an 840/USDA tag will be tagged during the fair check-in process. Additionally, all feeder steers will be tagged with both the 5-digit 4-H tag and the 840/USDA tag on ID day.
